

RUSSIA HAS NO FEAR OF DISORDER UNLESS CZAR PARES TO REVOLT

No Danger of Separate Peace Between Russia and Central Powers; History of Last Hours of Nicholas as Emperor Revealed; Generals Kept Him in Ignorance of State of Affairs Until the Very Last.

TOKIO, Japan, March 17.—According to information received here from Russia, the Russian emperor was on a train outside of Petrograd when the revolution took place. He sent Gen. Ivanoff into the capital to rally the troops to the imperial defense, but the general found that the soldiers had gone over to the revolutionists and that the emperor's cause was hopeless.

It is believed here that any grave disorder in Russia is unlikely unless the former emperor provokes civil war in an effort to regain his throne. The foreign office has been advised that the revolution has removed any danger of a separate peace between Germany and Russia.

The Story of Nicholas's Abdication.
Petrograd, Russia, March 15, via London, March 16.—The history of the last hour of emperor Nicholas as ruler of Russia is related by a correspondent of the Outlook, of Moscow, as follows:

Two trains arrived at the station at Vitebsk on the Moscow-Petrograd railroad, 125 miles southeast of Petrograd on the night of March 14. One train carried the emperor's suite, the second the emperor, Gen. Baron Fredericks, minister of the imperial household, and other high officials. The emperor, Gen. Zabel and others, Nicholas, called from headquarters by the emperor, was on the way to the Tsar's palace.

News Kept From Emperor.
None of the telegrams about the revolution sent by president Rodzanko of the duma had reached the emperor. Every effort was made to keep him in ignorance of these affairs. Gen. Zabel

OPENING THE DOOR BELLS ON VOTES

Republicans Adopt This as Slogan; Young Voter Wakes Up Audience.

(Personal) contact with every voter in El Paso in a "doorbell" campaign was the plan formulated by the Republicans at a meeting held in the Cokes building Monday night to win the election on April 19. By the assistant of attack they declared they would capture enough votes to carry the city for their candidates.

The meeting was changed from a rather dull affair, which talked only of trying to get enough votes to guarantee to the next set of Republican candidates that it was worth while for them to run, to a regular "bazaar" by the speech of W. S. Case, the Republican campaign manager, of J. C. Barrett, candidate for alderman.

Cook Wakes Lively Interest.
Young Cook, who had just from New York, and who declared he had yet to meet his first wife, brought the meeting to life with his speech. "You can win this fight," he cried. "Show these El Paso Democrats that they are not going to be made this time. Make noise, Republicans, make noise," was his plea. "Only make enough noise, and you can win."

Hills Pledges Lively Campaign.
Following Mr. Cook's address the meeting turned into an optimistic atmosphere. V. S. Hills, member of the Republican executive committee, pledged himself to make a doorbell campaign in his precinct, and his offer of personal service was followed by like pledges from other prominent Republicans.

Favorable to Stevens.
C. B. Stevens, candidate for school trustee on a non-partisan ticket, was wisest of the best of the Republicans, but was not given any official endorsement as "it was not wise to bring the school into politics," according to J. A. Smith.

M. M. Hughes, member of the executive committee, declared he believed the Republicans could carry over half the ticket, and that enough enthusiasm could be aroused to overcome the "municipal" corrupt vote.

No Reason for Solid Democracy.
Perry Gwin, candidate for assessor and collector, said there was no reason for this being a Democratic city, as it did not need a solid Democratic vote as a protection against the negro vote.

J. A. Smith told of how one Republican mass meeting turned into a frost last year, and how he and W. H. Case, who acted as the speaker on that night, in the absence of F. B. Stuart, president, deserted it and attended a Democratic frolic.

Garrett and Carlton Speak.
F. J. Garrett and E. D. Carlton, candidates for alderman, made short talks. W. E. C. and others were appointed as new members of the Republican executive committee.

The Republican campaign platform read by secretary J. C. Jones, was unanimously adopted on the motion of J. A. Smith.

To Meet Again Friday.
The Republican executive committee will hold a meeting tonight in the office of W. H. Case. Friday night there will be another general meeting.

quietly to finish my life and let Michael govern the country. He is well liked by the people. I will sign my abdication and then go back to my army, say goodbye to the soldiers and let them do as they like. I shall not stand in the way.

This last colloquy occurred on the station platform. Nicholas, who was dressed in a soldier's coat with a colonel's shoulder straps and a sheepskin hat tilted back, frequently mopped his brow. He gazed about in an abstracted manner and then mounted the steps of his car. Thereupon the train moved off.

RUSSIAN ARMY AND NAVY JOINS WITH NEW REGIME

Washington, D. C., March 20.—Complete cooperation of both the Russian army and navy with the new revolutionary government was reported today by ambassador Francis to the state department. The ambassador stated he had received this information from official sources and confirmed it to his own satisfaction unofficially.

The question of recognition of the new government by the United States is becoming increasingly important. Officials say the receipt by the state department from the Russian ambassador of foreign minister Miliukoff's statement to the world does not constitute such recognition nor will such action by England, France and other allies hasten the decision of the United States. It is possible, however, that action may be taken shortly and that even if it is not, Congress will pass resolutions facilitating the new government.

FINLAND GOVERNORS RESIGN; ACQUIRE IN REVOLUTION

London, Eng., March 20.—Nearly all the district governors and officials in Finland voluntarily resigned today when they heard of the revolution and little opposition was shown anywhere towards the new order of things, according to a Copenhagen dispatch. Reuters, quoting the Berlingske Tidende.

M. Rodicheff's appointment as the new governor of Finland, it is said, have proved popular as he is known as a staunch advocate of Finnish aspirations. The prisoners in the fortress at Helsinki have been liberated and the governor and police dismissed.

GERMANS SAY TONNAGE SUNK IS ABOVE EXPECTATIONS

Berlin, Germany, March 20.—(Wireless to Sayville.)—Commenting on the admiralty announcement that merchant ships of an aggregate gross tonnage of 78,500 were destroyed in February as a result of war measures of the central powers, Berlin newspapers say the sinking of only 60,000 tons per month had been thought probable and that this estimate was based on the surmise that only part of the neutral shipping would cease trading with the British Isles. Neutral trade with Great Britain having been interrupted entirely, the estimate on this basis would be 55,000 tons. Consequently the result obtained, as announced by the admiralty is 50 per cent higher than might have been expected.

THIEVES TAKE PET CATS, COILS, PISTOLS AND JEWELS

Activities of thieves, though limited, Monday night, ranged all the way from the stealing of pet cats to that of automobile coils, jewels and pistols.

Mrs. C. O. Coffin, 1101 Union avenue, had $200 worth of jewelry, chains and money lifted by a pirate snatcher in a market on South El Paso street.

G. F. Reed, 1108 East Missouri street, was the loser of three valuable angora cats.

Lieut. Alden Smith, Fifth Georgia infantry, had his Smith Colt automatic pistol stolen.

A set of new automobile coils was taken from J. Gray, 1202 Magoffin avenue.

Austin, Texas, March 20.—Governor Patterson today signed the general irrigation bill, which strengthens the present irrigation laws. This bill is endorsed by the general irrigation conference of Texas. He also signed the house bill authorizing commissioners to establish districts and establish districts for irrigation purposes.

Senate Passes Speed Bill.

The senate today, by a vote of 21 to 9, passed finally the house bill by Cokes revising the speed laws for automobiles in the state. The bill limits the speed of automobiles on highways to 25 miles, 15 miles in cities and residence districts, 15 miles in business districts of smaller cities and towns and 10 miles in the latter cities, while at grade crossings the drivers of motor cars must slow down to six miles.

The senate amendments, according to Cokes, will be concurred in by the house.

The senate also passed finally the house bill revising the school lands which have been forfeited by a decision of the supreme court on account of the failure of the land companies, to enter the award upon its books.

By a vote of 17 to 14, the senate today killed the house bill which would have abolished the state warehouse and marketing commission and would have placed the administration of the marketing commission under the jurisdiction of the state department of agriculture.

Under Auto Bill Passes.

The senate passed finally the house bill by Underly of El Paso, requiring automobile repair shops and garages to keep a record of cars repaired. The purpose is to keep track of stolen cars.

The senate adopted the free conference committee report on the house bill by Williams, regulating pool balls.

House Re-Refers Bill.

The house re-referred the bill law to the conference committee for further consideration.

Mrs. Felipe Angeles, who lives at the corner of Arizona and Fourth streets, yesterday morning telephoned to the city detective office asking that officials look for her 12 year old son, Alberto, who has been missing since Monday morning about 10 o'clock, she said.

Alberto is the son of Gen. Felipe Angeles, and has been driving a jitney on the West Hill route. The general has been in Washington for the past few months, it is said.

Capt. J. R. Stone said that Monday morning some officers tried a time to take them to the Organ Mountains to locate a chase and that as near as can be ascertained the Angeles boy was the driver.
